2) Link Campus University:

LINK Campus University is a modern university with an ancient heart, an open and inclusive community that proposes a multidisciplinary educational project aimed to enhance the students' culture and skills, but also to offer concrete qualifications, discover talents and face the challenges posed by the labour market. Thanks to an innovative educational offer, result of a constant relationship with companies and institutions, LINK Campus University makes young people protagonists of their human, cultural and professional development.

LINK Campus University brings together the knowledge system, the production system, the research and development system, to promote creative and scientific talents, creators of opportunities and new perspectives.

LINK Campus University offers the possibility to study in a highly innovative and remarkably beautiful environment, and to prove the knowledge and abilities acquired, playing a pivotal role in the human and professional growth of the students, thus enabling them to become competitive in an ever-changing world.

The headquarters of Link Campus University is in Casale San Pio V, a place full of history, art, culture, located a few steps from the Vatican. The complex features structures such as the Ancient Library (seat of conferences, artistic events and graduation sessions); the Gymnasium (which houses seminars and academic meetings); the Bar Art Café (a place to relax and meet up for a drink); as well as teaching classroom and study rooms equipped with the most advanced technology.

Link Campus is an International University located in the centre of Rome; a magnificent historic complex immersed in lush greenery. Such a stimulating environment, combined with the innovativeness of the courses offered, provide the students with all the skills required to be competitive in an ever-changing world.

University is not only synonymous with study, that is why Link Campus University offers the possibility to participate in moments of entertainment, cultural and artistic events, and meetings with special guests and experts in various disciplinary sectors.

All the classrooms are equipped with 85" smart display (20 simultaneous touches supported) offering an amazing experience of cooperation and collaboration, going beyond the traditional interactive whiteboard/IWB. For example, the professors may add written notes to files, pictures and web pages, and send it by mail to all the students with a single tap.
